As the leading producer of patties in Jamaica, Juici Patties is committed to standards of excellence and best practices in achieving the highest quality of safe products for the consuming public.

In recognition of our obligation to food safety and security, we commit to world class benchmark and thus have embraced;

- World class manufacturing systems
- Technology based management systems solution
- Competence based human capital
- Commitment to an eco environment
- Adherence to customer and regulatory requirement

Our built in analytics modelling in the functional area of management measures, reviews and updates our strategic and operational indicators. Our communication structure promotes lateral and vertical information dissemination.